STRIKE BREAKER IS ASSAULTED

Man Arrested as Suspect Is Discharged by Recorder

Thomas Walsh, a machinist, formerly employed by the G. H., was dismissed by recorder Adrian Pool when arraigned in police court Thursday afternoon on a charge of assaulting A. Dillinger, a strikebreaker employed in the G. H. boiler shop, who said that while standing at the corner of Mills and North Oregon streets Thursday afternoon about 3 o'clock, he was attacked from behind by three men, and probably a fourth, knocked to the street and kicked over the eye, making a gash about two inches long.

Dillinger said that he could assign no reason for the attack except that he was a strikebreaker, and he believes that the persons who jumped on him were strikers from the G. H. He charged Thomas Walsh, who said he was a striker, and who was arrested with him, with being the one who kicked him.

Walsh, however, denied it, and said that he was not in the party, but on seeing the crowd and hearing the cries of "Scab! Scab!" ran up to see what the trouble was, and when he walked away he was placed under arrest by a policeman. This story was supported by the testimony of a witness to the affair, who said that, though he did not know who were in the party that attacked Dillinger, he was positive that Walsh was not one of them.

James Donnelly, charged with assaulting J. A. Seckington Thursday night on Broadway, was released Friday morning on $100 bond. Seckington says that while walking down Broadway Thursday night, he was attacked by Donnelly and several others, and severely beaten.

How To Always Have Youthful Complexion

(New York Fashion Letter.) It is not how much attention you give, but rather the kind of treatment you employ, that insures the youthful tint and velvet softness and clearness to the skin, which are the "car marks" of the perfect complexion.

CIRCUS ARRIVES LATE AND HUSTLES

Comes in From Douglas at 10:30 and Rushes Tent Stretching

Delayed in arriving from Douglas, Ariz., where performances were given Thursday, Howe's London show did not arrive in El Paso until 10:30 Friday morning, and was unable to give a street parade until 1 o'clock.

The circus has erected its tents on the carnival grounds at the intersection of Second and Santa Fe streets, where it gave a performance Friday afternoon and will give another Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

The circus prides itself on its horses and carries 250 with the show. These appeared in the parade pulling the cage wagons and with the performers riding them.

The circus claims to have 500 people with it in various capacities.

COUNTY TAX ROLLS SHOW BIG INCREASE

Valuation For 1911 Shows Property Here Worth $42,000,000

The tax rolls of the county were signed up Thursday afternoon, placing the assessed valuation for the county at $42,000,000 for the year 1911. This is an increase over last year of $2,000,000. The books have not been given to the collector, but it is thought that they will be turned over some time Friday.

STAMPS OFFERED TO BROADWAY SALOONS

Several Men Appear to Have More Stamps Than They Need

Stamp sales continue brisk on the local market, in spite of the fact that there are five men in the county jail charged with having in their possession postage stamps. Stamp salesmen have been doing a good business in the city since the arrest of the five men and have disposed of a quantity of postage stamps at bargain counter prices.

An American attempted to sell a quantity of stamps in the John beer saloon on Broadway Wednesday. The stamps were offered in exchange for beer and were refused by the bartender. The proprietor was out of the saloon at the time. Other saloons on Broadway have been offered the stamps, but have refused to have anything to do with the men who have been offering them for sale. The man who attempted to sell the stamps at the John beer saloon is described as an American, about six feet in height, and fairly well dressed. He is still thought to be operating in the city.

BUTCHER TO APPEAL FROM DECISION OF RECORDER

M. Melvin, a local butcher, promises to appeal the decision of recorder Pool, given Thursday afternoon in the corporation court. Melvin, on the complaint of Steve Dawson, of the health department, was charged with violation of the city poultry ordinance, which provides that a market may not keep over a certain number of chickens on the premises. Melvin was fined $10, but as he left the court room he said that he would have the case appealed.

NEW WRINKLES IN THE RAILROADS

Superintendent of Transportation For Golden State Limited

A superintendent of transportation will be one of the newest wrinkles in railroading, if the plans of the traffic department of the Rock Island railroad are carried out. The superintendent of transportation will be in charge of the Golden State Limited trains from Chicago to Los Angeles. In fact, there will be at least four of these superintendents who will report directly to the traffic department, and will be in complete charge of the trains from the time they leave the terminals until they reach their final destination.

This will be a part of the plan to put the Golden State Limited in the de luxe class in order to compete with the Santa Fe railroad's fine train and the one to be installed on the Southern Pacific. The superintendent will have complete charge over all transportation facilities on the limited trains, and will arrange all transportation matters on the overland trip.

The dining and observation cars will be carried through from Chicago to the coast, and the stay of the train in each of the division stations, including El Paso, will be reduced to a very few minutes.

No definite date has yet been fixed for the installation of this new service, but it is expected in December.
